

THE EUCHARIST

The Eucharist holds a central place in our faith. To help deepen understanding and appreciation of the Eucharist, explore a rich collection of courses and learning paths available in the "browse" tab on LEAD. These resources offer insights into the theology, significance, and spiritual depth of the Eucharist, guiding participants toward a more meaningful connection with this sacred sacrament and its role in daily Christian living.

Featured

- Real Presence: What Does It Mean and Why Does It Matter? (Dr. Timothy O'Malley)
- What Do We Do In Adoration (Fr. Joshua Johnson)
- The Development and Basic Structure of the Mass (John Angotti)
- The Sacrament of the Eucharist (Bishop Robert Barron)
- Why attend Mass in a state of Grace? (Fr. Mike Schmitz)
- Fr. Lenox on the Liturgy (Fr. Peter Lenox)

The screenshot displays the LEAD website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'DASHBOARD', 'BROWSE', and 'CHANNELS'. Below this is a search bar with the text 'What do you want to learn?'. A yellow circle highlights the 'Eucharist' button in the search results, with a yellow arrow pointing to it. Below the search bar, there are several course cards. The first card is titled 'Fr. Lenox on the Liturgy' by Fr. Peter Lenox, with a 'CONTINUE' button and a progress indicator. The second card is titled 'Eucharistic Adoration' by Fr. John Bartunek, LC, also with a 'CONTINUE' button. The third card is titled 'The Development and Basic Structure of the Mass' by John Angotti, with a 'CONTINUE' button. The fourth card is titled 'What Do We Do In Adoration' by Fr. Joshua Johnson, with a 'CONTINUE' button. The fifth card is titled 'Do I Have To Go To Mass on Sunday?' by Fr. Mike Schmitz, with a 'CONTINUE' button. A large yellow banner with the text 'Check out these fantastic resources in LEAD!' is overlaid on the right side of the screenshot.